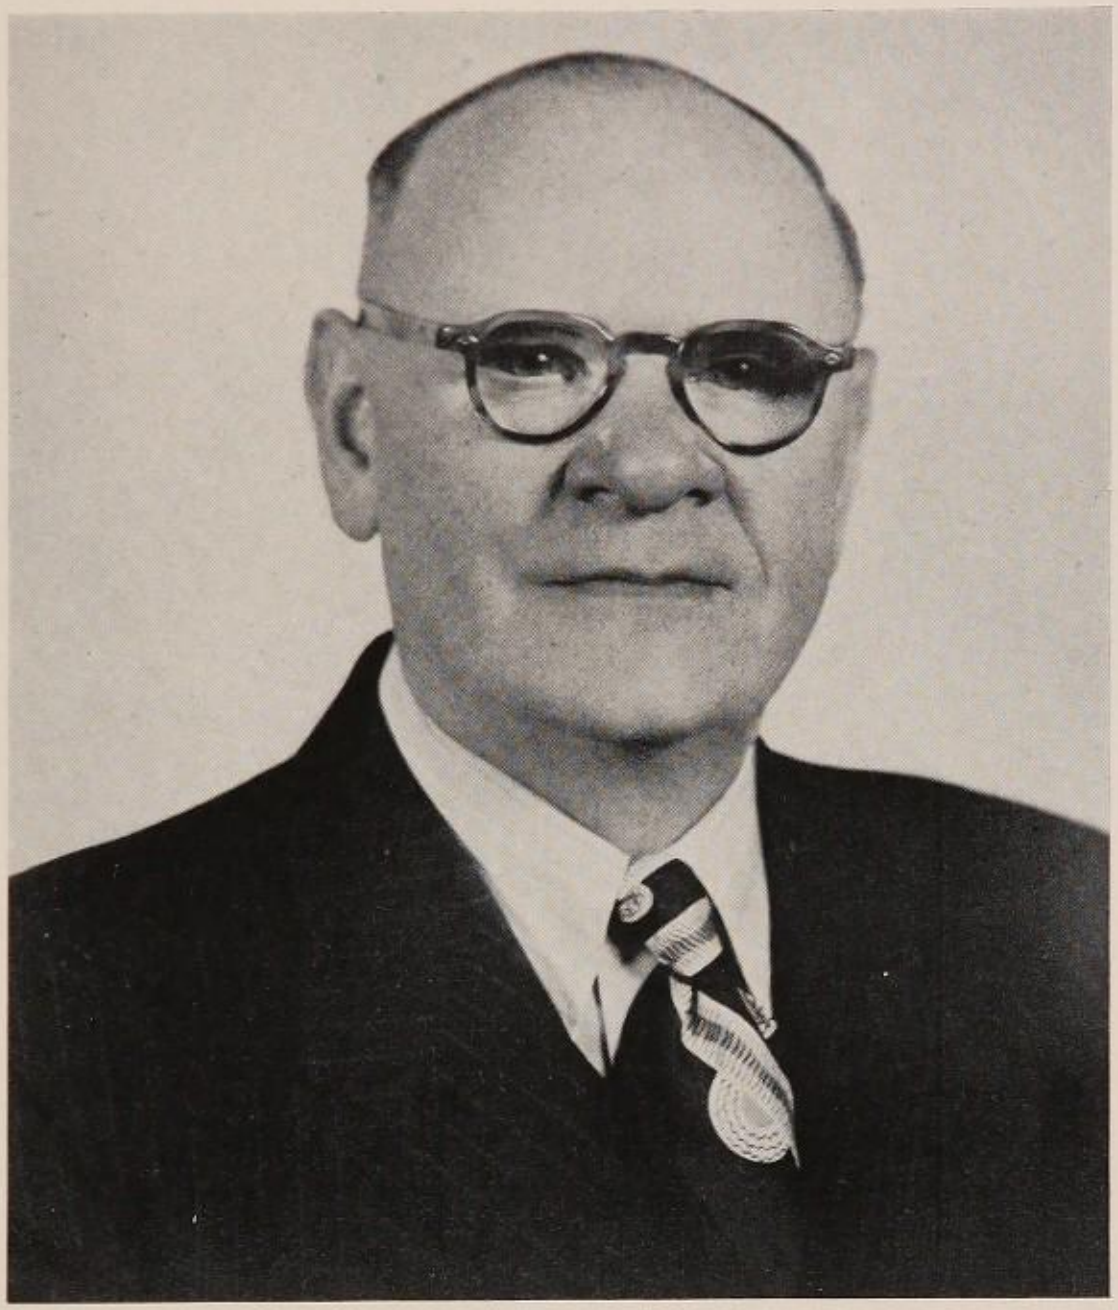
Presents the

Allegarooter · 1951



Dedication

We, the Class of 1951, dedicate our year book to Mr. Arthur L. Perry, retiring Superintendent of Schools. Throughout our grammar school and high school years, he has executed his duties with sound judgment and good will. We wish Mr. Perry a future of well-earned prosperity and happiness.

Appreciation

We, the Class of 1951, extend our sincere gratitude to all those who have assisted in making our High School days interesting, enjoyable, and, above all, profitably educational. Our thanks go to our parents; the faculty; Mr. Person; the Board of Education; the Parent-Teacher Association; our class advisers, Miss Carhart and Mr. Schmidt; Mr. Cooper, our incoming principal; Mr. Perry, our outgoing Superintendent of Schools, who has meritoriously served in that capacity for nineteen years; and to the many others, all of whom we are proud to call our friends.

Senior Class

Our long awaited career as high school students began in September 1947—when approximately two hundred of us eagerly entered the hallowed halls of Rahway High. Although we were shy in the beginning, we soon became acquainted with one another and took our places in the activities of the school. The annual Freshman Dance was held successfully under the auspices of our class officers who were John Cox, president; Radley Squier, vice-president; Pat Acken, secretary; and Ann Archer, treasurer.

Our Sophomore year was even more eventful than our first year. Members of our class were constantly found in the midst of all school functions and school activities, participating to the best of their ability. Class officers were James Polacco, president; Cliff Ward, vice-president; Joan Ingersoll, secretary; and Ruth Kochy, treasurer, who worked harmoniously to insure the success of our Sophomore Hop.

During our Junior year, we really "came into our own." Our fellow classmates were especially active in athletics, doing more than their share toward our football victories. The team is noteworthy since they won eight of the nine scheduled games. "Tommy," our class play, was a huge success under the direction of Mrs. Aszman. A big surprise was in store for us when we were told of the wonderful plans being made for our Junior-Senior Reception. This was a perfect ending to a very happy and busy year. In our class elections, we elected Joseph Rucci, president; Fred Headley, vice-president; Ann Archer, secretary; and Joan Ingersoll, treasurer.

Perhaps our Senior year could be listed as our busiest and happiest. At last we had reached the top of the long ladder of high school education. Although the confused conditions of the world and the dim outlook of the future dampened our spirits slightly, we "put our best foot forward" to make the most of our last year. We had excellent representation on our victorious basketball and football teams which brought deserved honor to our school. The class officers, Fred Headley, president; Tony Cherubino, vice-president; Ann Archer, secretary; and Ruth Kochy, treasurer; worked hard in our annual school functions. In November our Senior Play, "The Goose Hangs High," was successfully presented under the direction of Mrs. Aszman. Shortly after the New Year the "Allegarooter" staff was chosen, and the last lap of our career began. We anxiously awaited our spring activities and graduation, the most important to us. With this we left Rahway High School after four happy years.

Junior Class

Just three years ago, we began our adventures in Rahway High. As the Freshman Class, we participated eagerly in all activities open to us. The highlight of that year was our dance, which was a grand success due to the co-operation of all the students.

We began our Sophomore year with much enthusiasm. The mysteries of Rahway High had been revealed to us in our Freshman year, and we were now ready to take part in a wider field of activities, which we did wholeheartedly. The Sophomore dance, all of this year's Juniors will agree, meant an enjoyable evening for everyone.

In September, 1950, the great day arrived! We were upperclassmen, and second only to the Seniors. Juniors took part in many activities. We sponsored a Sports Dance in honor of our football team, chose and purchased our rings, and presented a delightful play. The outstanding social event was the Junior-Senior Reception, to which every Junior looked forward.

All this was accomplished with the aid of our very capable officers, who were president, Richard Ruddy; vice-president, Alan Black; secretary, Dorothy Mohr; treasurer, Ann Case; and with the wise and understanding direction of our class advisers, Miss Wise and Mr. Perrine.

Sophomore Class

In September, 1949, a throng of frenzied Freshmen entered the halls of Rahway High; many had never visited the building before this time. Under the capable guidance and assistance of Miss Adellma Lyon and Mr. Jason Kemp, our Freshman Dance was greatly enjoyed by all. During the evening, a group of boys entertained. This marked the first time a Freshman Class had had entertainment other than recordings at their dance. Another feat was the organization of the Freshman Dramatic Club.

Our Class officers were Katherine Gray, president; Allen Weygand, vice-president; Maureen Sauers, secretary; and Arthur Taylor, treasurer. Our Student Council representatives were Pat Martin and Merle Roarke.

Having a year of experience behind us, we entered school in September, 1950, as Sophomores. Our elections were held and the final voting showed president, Richard Mundrane; vice-president, Donald Watts; secretary, Joan Chappell; and treasurer, Joyce Roberts. Merle Roarke, Charles Roche, Maureen Sauers, and Richard Mundrane represented our class in the Student Council.

Those activities in which Sophomores excelled are Band, athletics, Cheerleading, and Modern Dance. Our Sophomore Dance, which was well attended, was held in April, 1951, and enjoyed by all. Our able advisers were Miss Imogen McClellan and Mr. John Dixon.

Freshman Class

September eighth, 1950, is a day that will be remembered throughout the life times of some two hundred twenty-four boys and girls. Perhaps, you may inquire, "Why?" Well, on this day, these students were added to the ranks of "good old R.H.S." Yes, these pupils were now Freshmen. Just imagine, real, genuine Frosh! But this type of enthusiasm of our being in High School was definitely not to last throughout our entire four years of secondary schooling, as most of us soon found. After a few days of much confusion, we located our classes with the help of our advisers, Miss Lyon and Mr. Kemp.

We finally settled down to electing class officers, who are as follows: president, Cliff Buckley; vice-president, Joe Gassaway; secretary, Sue Simmons; and treasurer, Joan Michel. The Student Council representatives are Nancy Walker and Tom Deakin.

Our prom on the evening of April twentieth was the highlight of the year. Everyone who participated will agree that this was the most wonderful of social affairs that we ever attended.

We are gazing eagerly into our future years at Rahway High School, hoping that the class of '54 brings forth a reputation that will make R.H.S. just as proud of us as we are as students here.

Eighth Grade

The eighth grade is fortunate, this year, in having as officers Anthony Jansen, president; Joan Goeze, vice-president; Ronald Blitzer, secretary; and Sue Tennant, treasurer. They have done well so far and we know they will continue to do so.

Recently we held a square dance in the cafeteria, the proceeds going to the March of Dimes Drive. Everyone enjoyed the dance, and proving this statement, a notice appeared in Room 110 saying there was going to be a square dance club organized. The club seems to be coming along and there will soon be enough members to start planning dances.

Several of the eighth graders this year have joined the Band. Having played in the bands of Lincoln, Roosevelt, and Franklin Schools, they have some experience in the field, and there are more eighth graders playing almost every kind of instrument.

We plan to put on, under the direction of Miss Morris, two short plays for the Washington's Birthday Assembly.

We eighth graders are happy to have a small part in the activities of the High School, and are looking forward to next year when we shall be members in full standing.

Football

Our gridiron representation for the year 1950 successfully carried on the winning tradition of Rahway High School's football teams. The team's over-all record was seven wins, one tie, and one loss.

The season commenced with a 35-7 walk over Dover and was followed by a 33-25 triumph over Westfield. The former contest was marked by an unusual maneuver—a Dover fourth-down kick was capably blocked by Jim Polacco's face; the ball rebounded into the end-zone, when Roger Singer fell upon it—TOUCHDOWN! The latter encounter saw Nate Smith aggregate 25 points, the largest individual point total ever accumulated against last year's Group III co-champion in one game.

After Linden fell 40-7, Rahway devastated Cranford 46-6, becoming the first team in history to beat a Cranford football team by forty points.

The fifth game, with Clifford Scott, resulted in Rahway's lone loss, by a 21-0 count. The Scarlet were obviously hampered by Charlie Amasio's injury, which prevented him from participating in his usual capable manner. We recovered rapidly, however, conquering Scotch Plains and Summit by 20-0 and 34-6, respectively.

Our eighth contest culminated in a particularly notable victory. A score of 35 to 18 is a tremendous achievement against last season's Roselle team—the agglomerate previous scoring against it was nineteen points.

Thanksgiving Day is the traditional day for the traditional pigskin battle. The traditional rival was Regional of Springfield and the game was traditionally suspenseful.

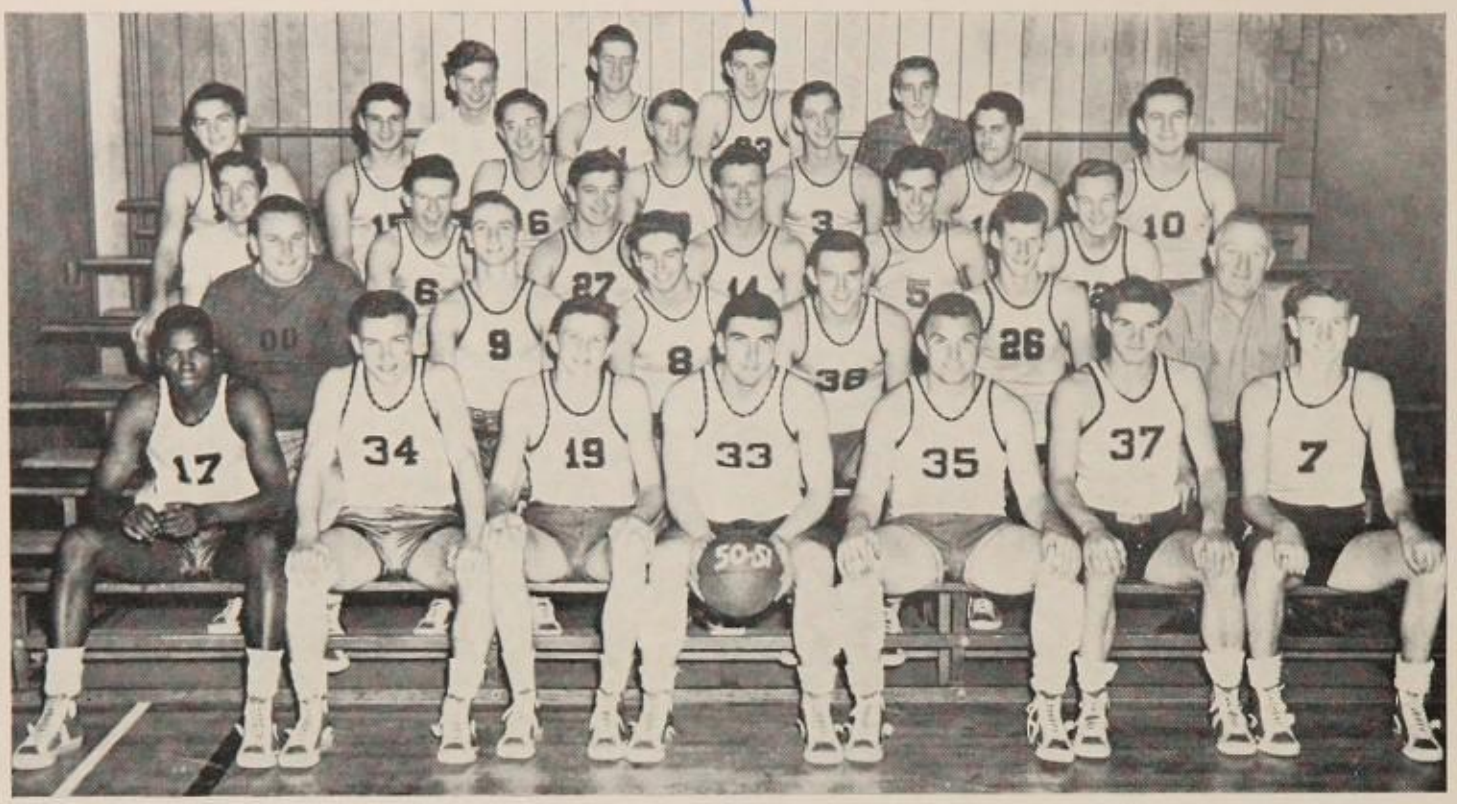
In the second quarter, after a series of short passes by Vincendese, Dick Sherry scampered thirty-eight yards for a touchdown which looked practically insurmountable at the moment. Dick Sheffler followed with a successful punt for the extra point.

Rahway's drive began near the middle of the third period. It began with Joe Syko's recovery of a Regional fumble, continued with line plunges by Joe Androvich and Charlie Amasio, and finished with Amasio's buck across the goal line for the TD.

Here was the peak of suspense with Nate Smith to hazard the point-after-touchdown. It is interesting to note the effect of half an inch on the outcome of a football game, for that is precisely the margin by which the ball cleared the cross-bar. Smith's tally marked the end of the scoring, the game ending in a 7-all deadlock.

Rahway's excellent showing this year culminated in its achievement of the Sectional Co-championship with Springfield. The New Jersey State Interscholastic Athletic Association granted the award.

Dear Carl:
Best of Luck Always,
Bob Caldwell



Basketball

This year's Rahway High School basketball team finished the most successful season in many years. Coached by Earl Walter, assisted for the first time by Robert Berger, the varsity compiled a regular season record of fifteen wins and only two losses.

Characteristically, Rahway upset a favored team, Woodbridge, to start the season. The score was 46-42. In the next contest, however, Rahway did not fare so well, losing to Linden, 44-48. From this point, the Scarlet embarked on a nine-game winning streak, beginning with a 53-46 conquest of Regional. The other victories included Cranford, 48-38; St. Peter's, 43-41; a return triumph over Linden, 37-22; Plainfield, 45-44; Union, 44-41; Westfield, 62-30; Plainfield, 47-40; and Highland Park, 53-43.

The Scarlet's only other defeat of the regular season was suffered at the hands of a spirited Hillside team. Rahway recovered rapidly, however, vanquishing Cranford 48-29; Edison, 61-38; and Roselle Park, 46-36.

Regional was the opponent for the sixteenth game of the season, to decide the Big-5 Conference Championship in a 66-65 thriller.

St. Peter's was the victim of the final game of the season, 67-62. Rahway did not live up to expectations in the Union County Tournament, losing to Cranford after a 53-46 win over Plainfield, nor in the State Tournament, where a 43-37 triumph over Bloomfield Technical High School was followed by a 36-38 drop to Hillside. However, we are inclined to forget the County Tournament, forget the State Tournament, forget the two regular season losses, and remember only the closing minutes of that great Regional game which saw the Scarlet come from behind and defeat the Bulldogs in the closing seconds to capture the Conference Championship and one of the most decisive victories in the history of the High School.

Baseball

The 1950 Rahway High School baseball season terminated in the greatest Rahway sports achievement in over a decade.

Unpretentiously enough, the season commenced with a 7-14 loss to Cranford, and a shut out of Linden, 5-0. In the next four games the Scarlet displayed an awesome hitting prowess, scoring a 62-run aggregate, vanquishing Scotch Plains, 18-0; Irvington Tech., 15-4; St. Mary's, 11-2; and Roselle Park, 18-7. Dick Wargo pitched some of the season's best ball in the two games surrounding the 18-5 rout of Roselle; engineering a 3-0, 1-hitter against Dunellen and a 3-hit 11-0 slaughter of Holy Trinity. Rahway squeezed out a 4-3 win over Union in ten innings. Smith led the 19-3 conquest of Highland Park, but Rahway inexplicably faltered and dropped the succeeding contest to Westfield, 3-7. Recovering, Plainfield and Jefferson were conquered 3-2, and 8-4, respectively. Hillside was the opponent in the last game of the regular season. The Scarlet finally broke through with a three-run spurt in the top of the eighth for the county championship.

In the first game of the Greater Newark Tournament, previously undefeated Sussex was defeated, 4-1. The Seton Hall game was a masterpiece of suspense, with Lewis picking the potential winning run off first with two out in the ninth. Behind in the bottom of the ninth, in the Hillside semi-final, Cygler spanked a double into center to knock in the winning run. The championship game with East Side was won on sheer momentum, 9-7.

In retrospect, the season was perhaps the greatest in the history of the High School, Rahway becoming the first Union County team ever to win the state title.

Coach Earl Hoagland was assisted by Robert Berger.

Track

The 1950 track season was marred by numerous postponements and several cancellations of meets because of frequent rains. Rahway High's track aggregation failed to gain a single team victory. There were meets with Scotch Plains, Edison, Hillside, Regional, Linden, and Roselle. Two relays were run in the Union County Relays and in the State Relays at Long Branch. Robinson, Lewis, and Steele ran and jumped in the state meet in New Brunswick.

The 1950 squad consisted of Robinson and Lewis, the newly elected co-captains for 1951, Krause, Hanks, Scott, Szollar, Steele, Duncan, C. Loenser, A. Loenser, Packman, Post, Adelung, Bendy, Harriman, Rucci, Donovan, Johnson, Black, Castor, and Watson.

The 1951 season began with a half mile relay team consisting of Lewis, Davis, Duncan, and Robinson who took second in the annual C. Y. O. Meet in Elizabeth in February.

Cross Country

This year's cross country team, although it struggled hard, was not much of a success in the way of winning meets. This season the team met Edison, Scotch Plains, Plainfield, Metuchen, Westfield, and Union. From this list it succeeded in securing a victory only from Scotch Plains. Randolph Brunt proved to be the outstanding runner of the year.

The team also participated in the county meet, but was not successful. For the first time in a number of years, Rahway High's Cross Country Team did not participate in the State meet.

The team was coached by Mr. Fred Schmidt.

Wrestling

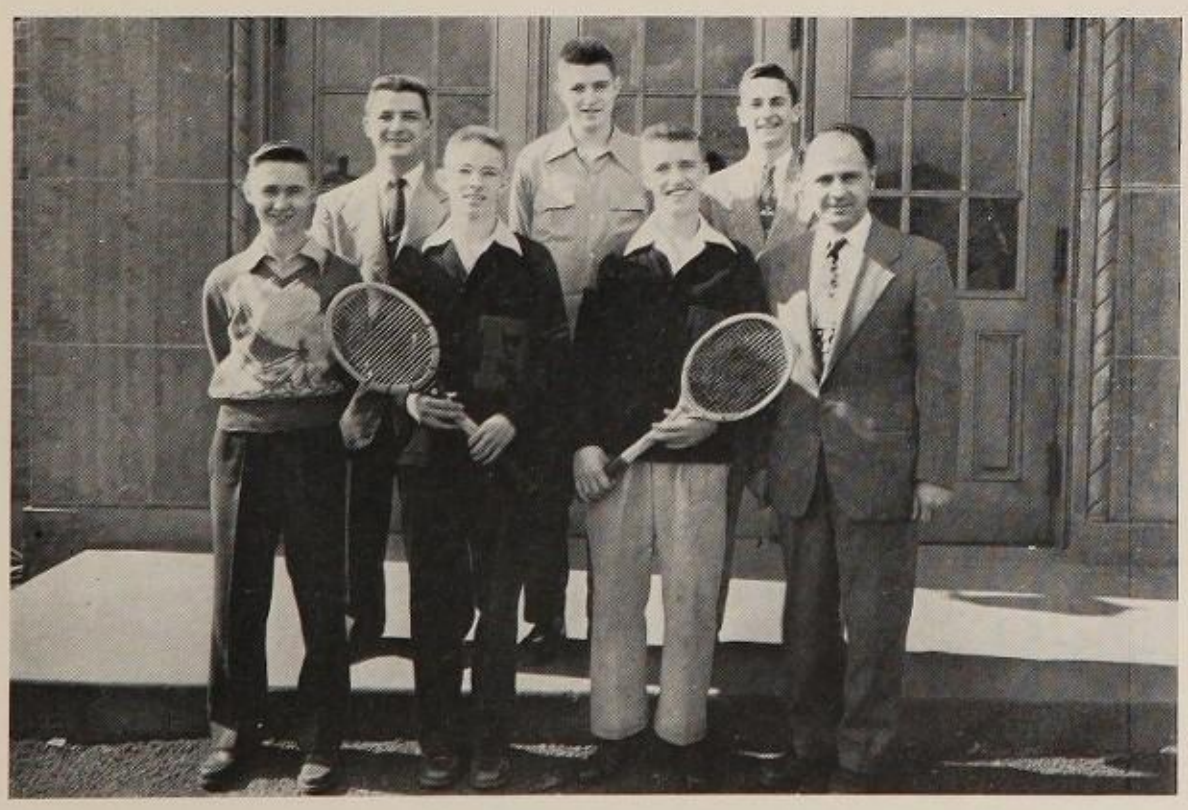
Mr. William Burns' first year as head wrestling coach proved to be the year of Rahway's best showing since the organization of the team.

The Scarlet lost to Union, Roselle Park, Somerville, Bound Brook, and Regional while vanquishing Plainfield, Jefferson, and Perth Amboy.

In the Union County Tournament, Rahway copped second place. Fred Roche won in the 104-pound division, Harvery Kirby in the 113, and Albert Smith in the heavyweight. Garfield Lewis placed second in the 139-pound class.

In the State Tournament Kirby defeated Joseph Morgan of Paulsboro 8-3 in the semi-finals. In the finals, he proceeded to pin John Lella of Bound Brook in 5:25 for the New Jersey State 113-pound wrestling title.

Bob Brock



Tennis

Since 1945, when it was resumed as a varsity sport, tennis has gained more and more popularity.

Last year's team, piloted by Mr. Edward Perrine, had a very successful season, winning eight of the nine scheduled matches. The players consisted of Dick Cunningham, captain of the 1950 team, Fred Hesse, Fred Roche, Charles Roche, Norman Harvey, and Robert Brock.

This year the team expects to have a full schedule, including their strongest rival, Plainfield. With six lettermen returning, there is a good chance of having another very favorable season.

Candidates for the team are chosen by a series of round-robin and elimination tournaments.

Girls' Activities

Under the faculty advisory of Miss Elysia Philipp, every girl in Rahway High School enjoys a wide variety of athletics. Each of the three seasons is packed full of delightful sports.

In the fall the girls enjoy tennis, archery, golf, and softball outdoors. Then when winter sets in, the girls' interests turn toward volleyball, basketball, marching, and other interests such as dancing, tumbling, and stunts.

Round robin tournaments are played in volleyball and basketball. The winning team is recognized as the championship team of the school in that sport and small felt letters are awarded to the victors at an Award Day Assembly.

After the busy winter schedule, the girls participate in the spring sports which are the same as the fall ones. The girls enjoy sports during the eighth period also. The program is so well planned that every girl in Rahway High School can participate in her preferred sport.

Modern Dance

The Modern Dance group has grown and grown. There are so many girls who are interested in Modern Dance that Mrs. Elizabeth Feeley, their adviser, had to establish a schedule. The total number of girls in the group is one hundred. These girls are divided into three groups: the advanced group which contains Freshmen through Seniors meets twice a week; the two beginners groups, one composed of Freshmen and Sophomores, the other of Juniors and Seniors, meet once a week. The group works on basic steps and exercises and also have experimented with original compositions on nursery rhymes. The big project of the year for the group was a dance program open to the public in which the composition of the dances was original. The group has improved a great deal in the past year and the girls enjoy this activity in spite of the fact that their bones ache occasionally.

Twirlers

TREASURER ..... MARGARET GATES
ADVISERS ..... MRS. FEELEY, MR. CLEVELAND

The Twirlers, six Junior and Senior girls, are an active part of the Band. Each twirler is selected from a large competitive group. She is judged on her skill of twirling and marching. After hard practice, the twirlers combine difficult techniques into a variety of routines and perform them during the football games.

Besides twirling at the games, the Twirlers and Cheerleaders sponsor the Kick-off Dance for the football squad before the first game. On Hallowe'en night, they participate in the parade and compete with other bands from different towns. This year, they were successful in winning an award.

February's event is twirling at the Annual Band Concert sponsored by the Band Boosters and held at the High School. The season is climaxed by marching in the Memorial Day Parade.

Cheerleaders

Under the leadership of their captain, Debby Millman, and faculty advisory of Thornton Monez, the Cheerleaders led the student body with vigorous and rhythmical cheers.

The ten girls with their bright red and white uniforms certainly added color to the football and basketball games, and also led the cheering at the assembly programs.

For the second consecutive year, the Cheerleaders were invited to the Annual Side Liners' Football Banquet.

This year, five of the girls are leaving the squad; namely, Debby Millman, Eileen Kelly, Gertrude Van Note, Marilyn Kooistra, and Kitty Marancik. In their place, five more girls will be chosen on their leadership, general appearance, and cheering ability in a series of eliminations.

MR. GEORGE SHERWOOD

The National Honor Society, a national organization, is composed of students elected by the faculty on the basis of character, leadership, scholarship, and service. The National Honor Society is equivalent to the Phi Beta Kappa of college, and membership in the Society is one of the highest honors to be won by a high school student. The N. H. S. is active in all of the school functions and is in charge of several assembly programs. Among these are the Education Week assembly and the Memorial Day assembly. The officers are elected each semester, or twice in a school year, so that more members may have the opportunity to serve the Society as officers, and gain valuable experience in leadership.

Student Council

PRESIDENT	JOSEPH RUCCI
VICE-PRESIDENT	PEGGY WIEBUSH
SECRETARY	MAUREEN SAUERS
TREASURER	RADLEY SQUIER
ADVISERS	MISS NANCY SINCLAIR and MR. JASON KEMP

Under the guidance of Miss Nancy Sinclair and Mr. Jason Kemp, the Student Council took new steps in becoming a leading activity of the school. The Council gave full support to the Inter-school Assemblies Program by bringing the talent of the school together in a variety show. As always, the Council supplied buses for carrying students to away football and basketball games and sponsored the G. O. tickets. For educational purposes, the Council visited the Public Service Terminal in Elizabeth and Rutgers University. The work of the Student Council this year was very creditable to Rahway High.

Orchestra

The Rahway High School Orchestra is composed of approximately forty players. One of its greatest achievements is to bring about a greater appreciation of music to the students, both participants and audience. The Orchestra performs at many of the school functions, and it is an important part of school life. The Orchestra played at the Senior Play, the Junior Play, and at Commencement. Two of the string players were chosen for the All-State Orchestra, while four other players were chosen for the All-State Band. Under the able direction of Mr. Ray Cleveland, the Orchestra is constantly improving and its members are increasing both their knowledge and enjoyment of good music.

Nancy Husbands is the president of the group.

Band

The Band, as usual, was a great success this year. Mr. Ray Cleveland did wonders in working as conductor of the Band. The music at the assembly programs was a treat to hear and each week the students were surprised to find a new selection ready to satisfy their listening pleasure. The football games were enjoyed even more because of the fine showing the Rahway High Band made during the halves, at which time tricky formations were displayed.

Not only did we enjoy the Band at football games, but on Decoration Day, and Hallowe'en, when the band won first prize as a marching and playing band. For civic pleasure, the Band presented two concerts this year.

Mixed Chorus

The Mixed Chorus is comprised of about 200 students from all classes interested in music.

The Chorus gave its annual Christmas program; and, during this season, small groups were sent to sing for different clubs in our city. In February, a group from the Chorus attended the opera, "The Magic Flute," at the Metropolitan Opera House.

The spring concert proved that Rahway High students enjoy music from both serious and light operas. A few selections from "Faust," a serious opera, was enjoyed by all. The light music was composed of numbers from the Broadway play, "South Pacific." The Chorus also was aided by the Orchestra in a few songs. To add to the program were solos by the students.

An enjoyable year was provided by Mr. Thornton Monez, the faculty adviser.

One of the club's plans is to partake in a "crazy dinner," with a menu of octopus meat, frogs' legs, and some types of odd vegetables. Their meetings are held on the third Tuesday of each month in Mr. Yothers' room. Some of the interesting subjects considered were the atomic theory, a scale model of a jet engine, and discussions for future meetings.

They had a "movie" and hope to have a picnic by the end of the year. A party, in the library, was also held.

The club will have a large part in the Science Assembly which is presented every year.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS	RICHARD POST

The Chemistry Club, under the faculty supervision of Mr. Fred Schmidt, was organized four years ago as an outgrowth of the Atomic Age Club. A chief function of the club is to give students an opportunity to gain fuller understanding of the field of chemistry and the advantages of chemistry.

On the first and third Thursdays of the month, meetings are held in the chemistry laboratory to permit the presentation of scientific experiments and practical applications of chemistry.

The club's membership is limited to thirty members, due to the insufficiency of laboratory accommodations. Students with marks ranging from "A" to "C" are qualified for charter membership. Others are selected by a membership committee to fill the quota.

This year the club plans to be host to the Biology Club in a social and scientific gathering.

ADVISER	MISS ADELLMA LYON

The Freshman Science Club, which meets monthly, is designed for those Freshman students who are especially interested in general science. Each member, during the year, presented a demonstration which he found interesting or useful. In the spring, the club visited places of scientific interest while on the annual trip. All of these activities increased the interest of the Freshman Science course and gave the students valuable additional information.

Personality Club

PRESIDENT	JOSEPHINE VERGURA
VICE-PRESIDENT	JOAN MICHEL
SECRETARY	JANICE MORRIS
TREASURER	MARGARET WEINHEIMER
ADVISER	MISS SABINA M. DESMOND

The purpose of the Personality Club is to help its members improve their appearance, develop their personalities, and otherwise make the best of their capabilities. The membership consists of approximately fifty Freshman girls. At each meeting, one of the members gives a brief talk about some phase of self-improvement. After the talk, the meeting is open for discussion. Some of the various topics that were discussed this year are manners in public, clothing, hair-styling, proper use of make-up, and worthy use of leisure time. The girls participated in the Hallowe'en parade in October, and they won a prize for their marching.

Future Homemakers of America

PRESIDENT	ELLEN COREY
VICE-PRESIDENT	FAYE FORTENBOUGH
SECRETARY	DIANA CROCE
TREASURER	JOAN CHAVAN
REPORTER	JOHANNA KOBELAS
ADVISER	MRS. FANNIE REED

The Future Homemakers of America are working to promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfaction of homemaking and to prepare for successful homemaking. Good deeds fill the F. H. A. scrapbook. Christmas candies were sent to a nursing home in Metuchen, and party favors for parties at institutions and hospitals have been made.

Early in February, the girls attended an all day meeting at Trenton State Teachers' College. In the spring, our Rahway Chapter joined with all the other New Jersey chapters at the annual State Convention. In spite of Mrs. Reed's divided day, part at high school, part at grammar schools, the club managed to meet twice each month for service and good times.

Junior Red Cross

PRESIDENT	ETHEL WOODEN
VICE-PRESIDENT	MARJORIE TAYNOR
SECRETARY	MARY WEIDLING
TREASURER	PHYLLIS FOSETTA
ADVISER	MISS DOROTHY DOWDEN

Ready to serve and to help are the girls of the Junior Red Cross, one of our school's most active service organizations. The club sponsors the annual Red Cross drive, in addition to its other activities. The members made hospital tray favors at Christmas and on Washington's birthday. Frequently they were seen at the Rahway Red Cross building, rendering various services to that organization. Scrap books prepared by the members were distributed in children's hospitals and homes. Advised by Miss Dorothy Dowden, the Junior Red Cross can be proud of its work.

Latin Club

PRESIDENT	NORMAN HARVEY
VICE-PRESIDENT	ARTHUR TAYLOR
SECRETARY	ANN CASE
TREASURER	JOANNE VEROSTIC
ADVISER	MR. EDWARD PERRINE

The Latin Club put to work and to play the knowledge gained of Latin in their classes. Latin Bingo and cross-word puzzles were often included in the club meetings. The highly competitive Brain Contest staged against the French Club was, as always, fun for everyone, even though the Romans knew not whereof the Francs spoke.

A trip to New York included an expedition to the New York Times Building, a study of the History of the Printed Word, and the trip to the Frick Museum.

Le Cercle Francais

PRESIDENT	CARL SAGAN
VICE-PRESIDENT	CARL LIEDTKE
SECRETARY	KITTY MARANCIK
TREASURER	ANN CASE
PROGRAM CHAIRMAN	PATRICIA ACKEN

This year the French Club has a most interesting and diversified program of events. Membership to the French Club is limited and is based on scholastic ability. The one regulation of the club is that only the French language may be spoken during the course of the meetings. Difficult, n'est-ce pas? The first program held this year was initiation of new members. The annual Christmas party was followed by the caroling of French Christmas songs in the Rahway Hospital. The traditional battle of the French wits against the Latin wits, the French Club Assembly, and a French meal prepared by the members of the club were other special events. The closing meeting was the annual trip to New York where the club went to a French restaurant and saw a French movie. The adviser of the club is Miss Nancy Sinclair.

Spanish Club

PRESIDENT	DIANE DOBERMILLER
VICE-PRESIDENT	CAROL WIMMER
SECRETARY	SANDRA STEVENS
TREASURER	CONNIE GAGNON

The Spanish Club, under the faculty guidance of Mr. Carmine Bruni, is an organization designed to promote the interest of the students in Hispanic customs, culture, and civilization through class discussions, skits, student reports, music, games, and correspondence with Spanish speaking people.

The group meets on the second Tuesday of each month to review and discuss their club activities. Those eligible for membership must be studying or have studied Spanish for one year.

VICE-PRESIDENT	WARREN JAMISON
SECRETARY	WILLIAM NATALIS
TREASURER	NINA SAMAILOVICH
SERGEANT-AT-ARMS	MARTIN KELLISH

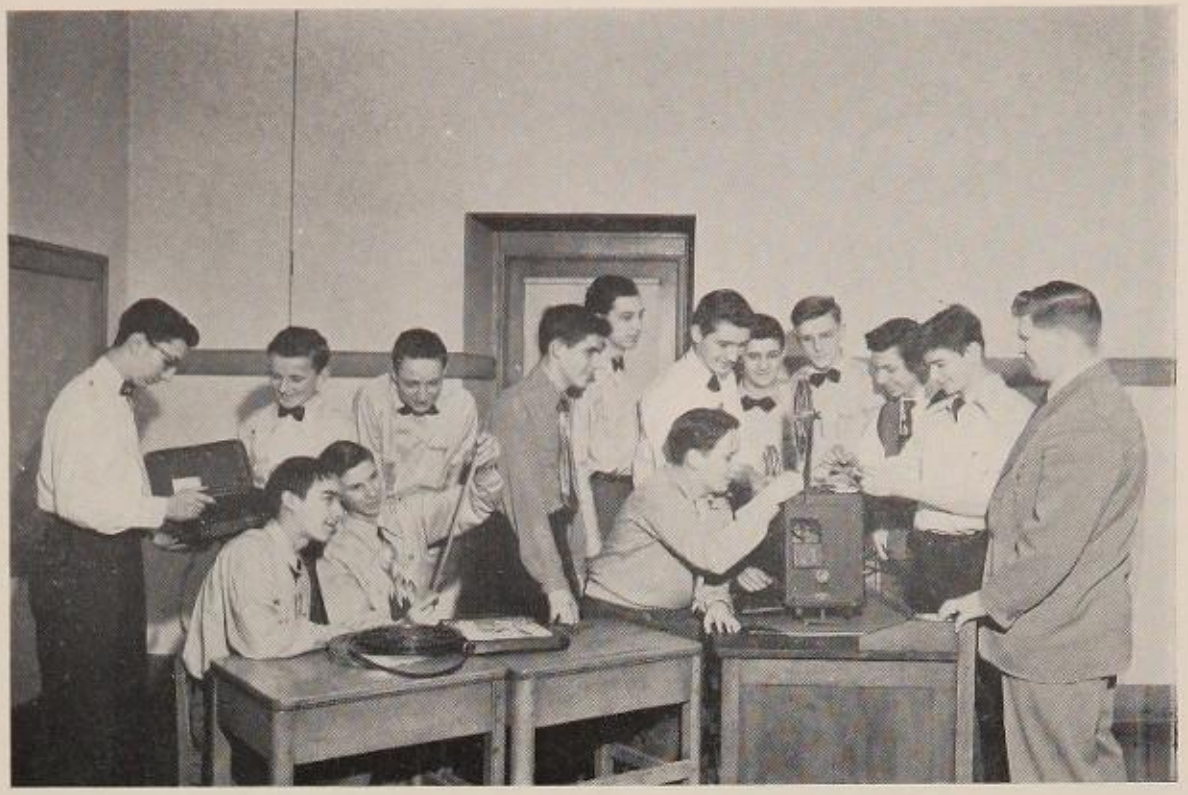
The Deutscher Verein this year has had the privilege of working under the supervision of two excellent advisers. Mrs. Shirley Vogel was the adviser during the first semester. Since Mrs. Vogel's leave of absence, Miss Rehm acts in the capacity of adviser. Among the various activities of the club was a Hallowe'en party. The town German Club also gave a Christmas party for the High School group. The school group responded with a program of Christmas carols sung in German. The club had an enjoyable, as well as educational, trip to Irvington where they attended a German motion picture. They also took a trip to New York.

Projection Club



PRESIDENTS	ERWIN KERSTEIN STEVE MESKO
VICE-PRESIDENT	BOB NELSON
SECRETARY	SALLY GALLIMORE
ADVISER	MR. ROY VALENTINE

The Projection Club consisted almost entirely of Trade and Industry boys; therefore, it was natural that the club president should be elected from that group. Since these boys are in school during alternating weeks, there were two presidents elected to serve at the meeting at which they were present.

The club showed the picture, "Angel on My Shoulder," to earn money for its treasury.

The club members were instructed by their adviser on how to set up the film, show the picture, and how to repair projection in case of an emergency.

Photography Club

PRESIDENT	WARREN JAMISON
VICE-PRESIDENT	BETTY MITCHELL
SECRETARY	JOYCE MILLER
TREASURER	CLAIRE BROOKSBANK
ADVISER	MR. ROY VALENTINE

The Photography Club was formed this year under the direction of Mr. Roy Valentine. Its object is to gain more knowledge in the art of successfully developing and taking candid pictures. Up to this time, the club has done the developing part of its project. Mr. Valentine is preparing to show the interested club members the best ways to choose subjects and plan the candid shots. The club is open to both male and female members interested in learning more about photography. Let's give three cheers for this new club and hope for its continued success.

Mr. Stevens presents lectures on sculpturing, painting, and designing. The members have planned a trip to the Frick Museum in New York. The Club was sponsor to a dance in February.

Many students unable to fit Art into their curriculum have found it possible to join the Art Club.

John Marshall Law Club

PRESIDENT	ARTHUR MARKELL
VICE-PRESIDENT	ROBERT SMITH
SECRETARY	ANITA SIMPSON
TREASURER	HELEN LENGYEL
ADVISER	MR. IRVING RAPPS

The John Marshall Club, organized for the purpose of furthering the study of law and of developing a desire to participate in social activities, this year consists of all Seniors enrolled in the Commercial Course.

The high light of the year's activities took place on April 6, when the members visited the County Court House at Elizabeth, where they saw a trial, and court procedure was explained to them by the Court Clerk. Following this, they went to New York, where they visited the Federal Reserve Bank of New York City. From there, the group went to the Hotel Taft for dinner and dancing. In the evening they saw "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes."

Banking Club

PRESIDENT	JOAN CABLES
VICE-PRESIDENT	DOROTHY JENKINS
SECRETARY-TREASURER	CAROLYN CROWELL
ADVISER	MR. RICHARD M. NASH

The Banking Club is composed of the treasurers of the Home Rooms. They participate in the sale of G. O. tickets put out by the Student Council, which enables the students to buy student tickets for football and basketball games. During the eighth period on Thursdays and Fridays, football tickets are sold. The members conduct the Parent - Teacher - Association drive and distribute the membership cards. They also help with the Red Cross and March of Dimes drives. This year the treasurers helped in the T. and I. movie by collecting money from all who attended. In general, the treasurers handle all money matters for the Home Rooms.

There are no regular meetings. Meetings are called when necessary.

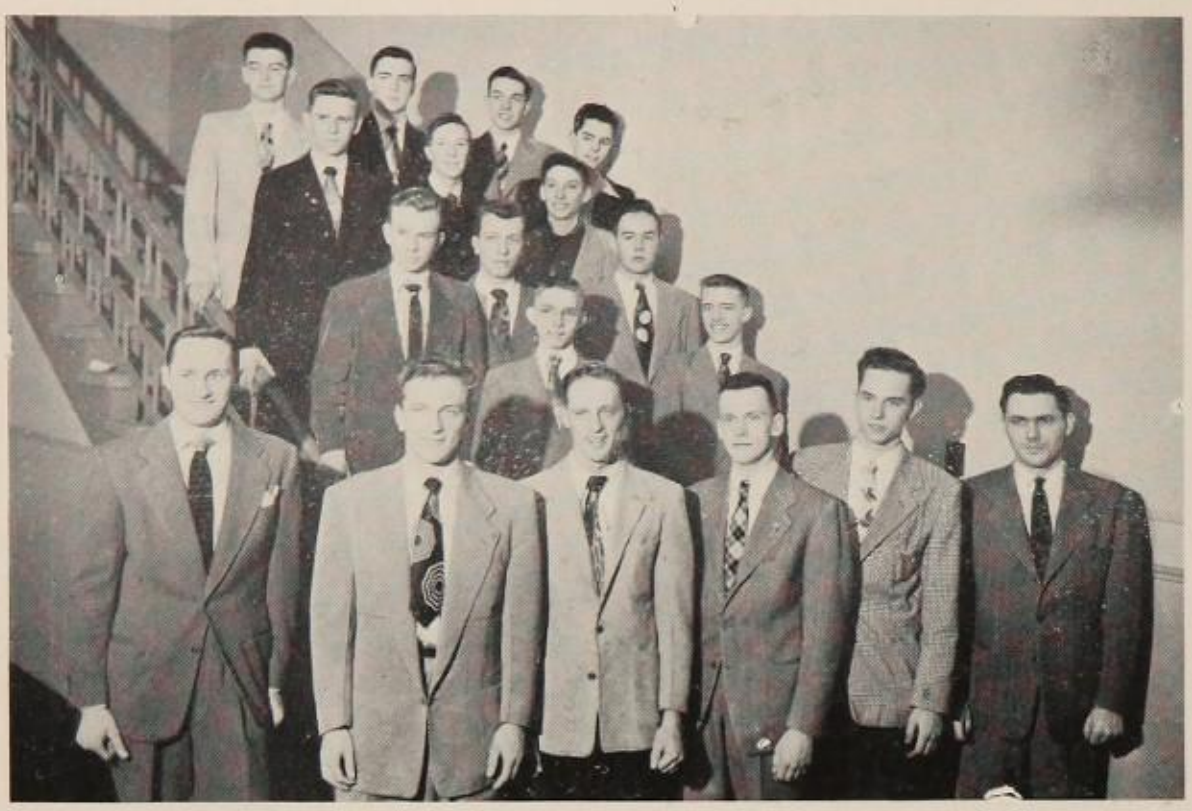
Key Club

PRESIDENT	ROY MORTENSEN
VICE-PRESIDENT	JAMES CAMPBELL
SECRETARY	LOREN ZIMMERMAN
TREASURER	JACK McFARLANE

Although the Key Club is one of the most recently formed organizations in our high school, it is part of Key Club International—the first Key Club having been organized in 1925.

In one sense the Key Club can be considered as a junior Kiwanis Club, as it is sponsored by the Kiwanis, and it aids in serving the school and community. Inductions are held in the autumn, and again in the spring. The club meets twice a month to assign new projects and discuss the completion of past ones. The projects that the Key Club undertake range from oiling pencil sharpeners to aiding the Kiwanis and Student Council in a successful Career Day, and serving as couriers in the recent Civilian Defense Program.

This marks the first year that the Key Club has had a faculty adviser, and this position has been very efficiently filled by Mr. John Dixon.



The Hi-Y Club

PRESIDENT	FRED HEADLEY
VICE-PRESIDENT	WALLACE ARMSTRONG
SECRETARY-TREASURER	CHARLES LOENSER
CHAPLAIN	JAMES CAMPBELL
ADVISER	MR. L. LAYTON WOLFROM

The Hi-Y is a voluntary club program for boys in the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades of high school, sponsored by the Y.M.C.A. The Hi-Y movement is international in scope, Christian in emphasis, interdenominational in character, and democratic in practice.

The Hi-Y purpose is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

The Hi-Y's activities this year include sponsoring dances, attending college football games, and entering a basketball team in the Eastern New Jersey Hi-Y basketball conference. In school, the Hi-Y sponsored and conducted a March of Dimes assembly and performed other services for the school and community.

SECRETARY	PAT ROWE
TREASURER	LOIS HAGAMAN
CHAPLAIN	LYN GIROUD
HISTORIAN	ANN ARCHER

Each member of the Blue Tri strives to create, maintain, and extend throughout the community, high standards of Christian character. The group consists of thirty-five girls and is a member of the National Tri-Hi-Y organization.

The Club began the year with an impressive candle light induction ceremony of new members. This year there were forums, talks by guest speakers, service meetings, the annual Mother-and-Daughter meeting, and several social outings, including a trip to Madison Square Garden to see the ice show.

Miss Thelma Frazee and Mrs. John L. Rowe are co-advisers of the club.

Literary Club

PRESIDENT	OTTOLIE UHL
VICE-PRESIDENT	PATRICIA BORESCH
SECRETARY	MARYANN PETRAITIS
TREASURER	BETSY EDWARDS
ADVISER	MISS ANNE O'DONNELL

The Literary Club is a congenial group of Juniors and Seniors who share an interest in literature. Once a month the club meets to discuss the books, poetry, and plays which its members have enjoyed. Both present day literature and the classics are discussed. Even "flying saucers" have not escaped being commented upon. At each meeting, one or two of the members give an oral report about a play they have seen, a book they have read, or poetry they have particularly enjoyed. After the reports, the meeting is open for discussion. Under the excellent supervision of Miss O'Donnell, the members of this club have gained a greater appreciation of literature and have found an opportunity to exchange opinions with those who share their interests.

Theater-Arts Club

PRESIDENT	GLORIA BROOKSBANK
VICE-PRESIDENT	LOUISE LARSON
SECRETARY	EBBA LUNGREN
TREASURER	MARILYN DeDECIUS
ADVISER	MISS M. ALBERTA CONLAN

The Theater-Arts Club is a Sophomore club which meets once a month. The only requirement for membership is a genuine interest in the arts of the theater. The students who are members wish to become acquainted with material that will make life more interesting and give them a greater understanding of the stage, its art, settings, lighting, make-up, and the characters of the play. The Club studied both the Junior Play and the Senior Play. They also made a study of the plays presented by the Theater Guild. In order to observe the arts of the theater more closely, the club made a trip to the Paper Mill Playhouse in Millburn, New Jersey.

TYPISTS	ROSEMARIE MARCIANO PEGGY NICHOLS AGNES MASTERSON
ADVISER	MRS. FRANCES TARASCO

The Journalism Club publishes every two weeks the student paper entitled "WAWAWHACK." Included in the publication are articles which vary widely as to subject matter. The sports events are accurately related, as well as the current gossip. Valuable pieces of advice and information are brought to the student body through the Editors' and Principal's articles. Student birthdays and club news help fill the four paged paper, in addition to laugh-inviting jokes, answers to the Inquiring Reporter, and clever cartoons. This year's "WAWAWHACK" has been one of the best student publications that Rahway High has known.

The Library Council

PRESIDENT	JANET SLONAKER
VICE-PRESIDENT	CONNIE GAGNON
SECRETARY	BETTY DUFF
TREASURER	DORIS POST
ADVISER	MISS ANNE VAIL

The Library Council is a service organization which learns the operation of the Library and helps the students to find much needed books. The librarians aid Miss Vail in her work and help the students by freeing her from little duties such as checking books in and out and preparing magazines for use. These girls are not interested in work alone. Each librarian has a Secret Pal who is anonymously feted at birthdays and Christmas. Their springtime trip to New York included the Easter Show, a visit to Central Park Zoo, and the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Senior Play

On November 17, 1950, "The Goose Hangs High" was presented to a capacity audience in the High School Auditorium. Mrs. Jane Aszman, the coach, produced another success. A complicated plot concerning the financial troubles of the Ingals family held the suspense until the very end. The parents, children, grandmother, and several outsiders added humor, as well as pathos. The cast included: Robert Carron, Carolyn Giroud, James Campbell, Tony Cherubino, Sylvia Herer, Janet Fairweather, Carol Liedtke, Radley Squier, Fred Headley, Ruth Kochy, Charles Brown, Debby Millman, and Carl Sagan. Especially effective make-up, by Charles Stevens of the Art Department, lent much to the reality of the play. The scene, the Ingals' living room, was made by the Art Department.

Junior Play

Directed by the faculty coach, Mrs. Jane Aszman, the Junior Play was presented on March 16, 1951. The talented young actresses and actors who made the presentation a success were Bill Marsh, Mary Davidson, Alan Black, Robert Eadie, James Schubauer, Lois Herer, Joan Laurent, Jane Kirtley, Peggy Wiebush, and Joan Cables. "Nothing but the Truth" portrayed the struggles of an individual who tried to tell the truth for twenty-four hours, and still keep friends. The play was fast moving and humorous from beginning to end. The Art Department, under the direction of Charles Stevens, again produced exceptionally fine sets and make-up effects.

Dramatic Club

PRESIDENT	DOT BILARCZYK
VICE-PRESIDENT	JOAN CHAPPELL
SECRETARY	JOYCE KOCH
TREASURER	FRED SHUBERT
ADVISER	MISS RUTH MORRIS

A year ago, a group of Freshmen interested in participating in plays organized the Dramatic Club. With meetings officially once a month and unofficially every week, everyone has a chance to have a role by the end of the year.

This year the club presented, in assembly, a one act play entitled "The Trysting Place," by Booth Tarkington. The club has also planned an evening of one act plays for April as a joint program with the Dramateens.

Hi-Square Club

PRESIDENT	JAMES JOHNSON
VICE-PRESIDENT	DICK CAPO
SECRETARY	JUDY ABBOTT
ADVISER	MR. JOSEPH D. PERSON

A group of young people, interested in learning of the various types of folk dances and some western style square dances, started the Hi-Square Club again this year.

The club met the second and fourth Mondays of the month. Jimmy Johnson, Lowell Stahl, and Chicke Roche were the callers, with Mr. Person instructing the folk dancing. Many of the meetings were held in the cafeteria; they were later transferred to the gym as the group grew in size.

The group learned the dances quite rapidly and soon were doing some tricky numbers. All in all, it was a lot of fun, and all thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Trade and Industry

The Trade and Industry course offers to the Junior and Senior boys of Rahway High an opportunity to learn a trade through practical experience. This course regulates the boys' classes so that they are able to work a complete week and then attend school the next. This allows the boy who knows that it will be impossible for him to attend college and that work is a necessity in home life, to secure a good job while still in school. This course makes it possible for many, who would have to leave school and find work, to complete their high school course and still satisfy their monetary needs. We are proud that our Rahway High can offer such a course to its students.

Best of Luck Joe

Junior Chef Club

PRESIDENT	HAROLD CLARK
VICE-PRESIDENT	GARY MADDEN
SECRETARY	RICHARD JACKSON
TREASURER	RICHARD LITCHKO
REPORTER	DONALD COSGROVE
ADVISER	MRS. MARION PARSONS

The Junior Chef Club was organized this year for Freshman and Sophomore boys who were unable to join the Senior Chef Club, as their membership was filled. The aim of the club is to direct the boys' interest in cooking. At the meetings the boys learn various ways to prepare food, read recipes, follow directions on packages, and basic techniques of measuring and mixing. The goal for the year is a dinner, cooked and served in the Home Making Department, and a picnic to be cooked over an open fire.

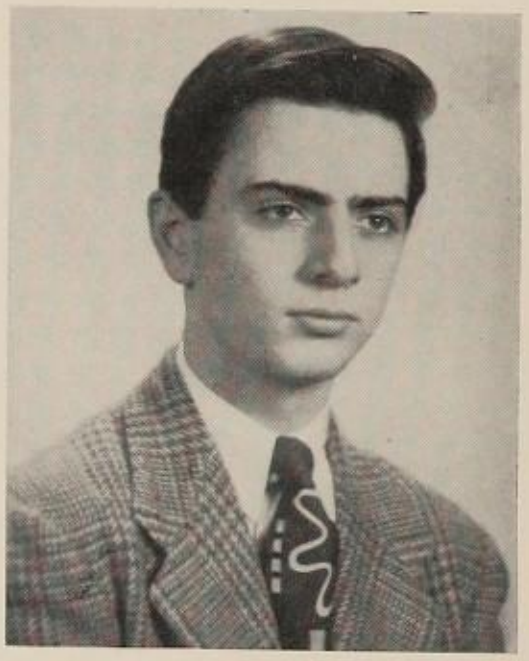
Senior Chef Club

PRESIDENT	GILROY BUCHAN
VICE-PRESIDENT	LARRY RYAN
SECRETARY	DONALD LANE
ADVISER	MRS. MARION PARSONS

The Senior Chef Club is a group of Senior boys interested in the culinary art. They propose to learn some cooking skills and to be able to follow recipes. Although they may not become "chefs des cuisines," they will be able to make some good things to eat for themselves and their friends. A picnic was the major social affair held by these amateur cooks.

The American Legion Oratorical Contest

The American Legion Post No. 5 sponsors each year an oratorical contest in which Juniors and Seniors may participate. This year's contestants were Patricia Acken, Jean Nemeth, Ann Case, Sylvia Herer, Constance Goldsworthy, Robert Carron, Carl Sagan, and Bruce Ritter. Sylvia Herer was selected as the winner and was delegated to represent Rahway High School at the Regional County Finals. Mr. David Bender is in charge of this annual contest.



WAAT Radio Forum

On April 25, Carl Sagan, representing Rahway High School, participated in the Junior Town Meeting of the Air. Sponsored by the Kresge-Newark Department Store, and broadcast on station WAAT, the topic of the forum was "Is it socially desirable to televise investigations?" Charles Brown was alternate.

D.A.R. Pilgrimage

The Daughters of the American Revolution sponsor a Good Citizen to the annual Pilgrimage held at Trenton. Senior girls who represent the various D. A. R. chapters are selected by their classmates and teachers for their leadership, dependability, service, and patriotism. This year the girls attending the Pilgrimage, March 15, were welcomed by Governor Driscoll. During the day, they toured historic landmarks in Trenton including the State House and the Old Barracks.

The Good Citizen for this year was Carolyn Giroud and Ruth Kochy, alternate, who were sponsored by the Rebecca Cornell Chapter.

Career Day

On October 25, 1950, Rahway High School concerned itself with the activities of the sixth annual Career Day, sponsored by the Rahway Kiwanis Club. The faculty, Student Council and adviser, Mr. Jason Kemp, and the Key Club aided this project. Twenty-five discussion leaders presented lectures on their various vocations to the students who had previously chosen to attend two lectures that interested them the most. Career Day provides the student with an opportunity to gain a better understanding of the occupation he wishes to choose. The faculty has seen that the choice of a vocation is one of the most important decisions a student must make, and wisely decided to continue Career Day, one of the highpoints of the school year.

American Education Week

Education continues throughout the school year but during American Education Week, November 7-13, we give special recognition to the advantages of education. Parents of the students were encouraged to visit the school and observe our classes.

The National Honor Society was in charge of the American Education Week assembly which included an essay and a poster contest. P. T. A. officials and American Legion Commanders were among the platform guests at the assembly.

A Short Story

It was a day of FAIR WEATHER along the BROOK'S BANK. The sun's RAYs were peeping through the trees near the BROWN farmhouse which belonged to the country SQUIER.

The squier walked out of the house, accompanied by the BUTLER. "I say there, HARVEY," said the master, "how have the fellows done in breaking in that new horse?"

"At first she was a YOUNG BUCHAN' broncho, sir, but now UHL notice that MASTER'S SON is POSTing fine. MAUR EN' more, every day, he's becoming a good horseman."

Suddenly a STEWARD ran to the two and exclaimed, "Squier, the prize pig has been stolen."

"WAT, SON? Are you sure? I paid a MINT, ELwood, for that LITTELL pork. This is a case of negligence!"

"Please, Sir, ABATE your anger and listen to the details. It appears he was stolen from his STAHL today as we were sippin' RYe AN' bourbon in the bar. The gate was pried open and . . ."

"Superficialities! Elwood, call the town MARSHALL."

The Marshall, accompanied by an ARMSTRONG ARCHER, the deputy, soon arrived.

"Van," she said, (for the Marshall was a she and the deputy was called Van), "VAN, NOTE the date in your CALLANDer. Now, let us go forWARD to the scene of the crime."

After eight LONG hours of intense study, she concluded, "I have but two alternatives. Either she was LANCEd through the heart and into yon brook CAST, OR she was ROWEd away in the same stream. Good day, gentlemen."

"Oh, my pig. I'll give a thousand NICHOLS for her return. I'd like to MAUL that incompetent woman," exclaimed the Squier.

Just then a TAYLOR and a SMITH approached with the vagrant pork. "Sir," the farmer said, "We found your hog by the riverbank, hatching eggs."

"Incredible! Pigs aren't HATCHERS. And how did it get there?"

"We don't know, Sir," returned the two as they hastily departed.

"Utterly mystifying," declared the Squier. "The beast must have pried open the gate herself, the CUNNING HAM. I'll BERN 'ER hide off! HA! BERLEd pork."

OUR DAYS AT RAHWAY HIGH

The days we spent at Rahway High
We never will forget,
And in our hearts will never die
These memories firmly set.

The familiar halls that we passed through
We cherish in our hearts,
And now the days are only few
'Till from these halls we part.

Where'er we go in days to come,
If we be far or near,
We never shall forget the fun
That we experienced here.

In hours solemn, we did learn
To use the Golden Rule;
We know, as from these doors we turn,
We'll ne'er forget our school.

All negatives of photographs appearing in this book are in our files. Additional fine finished portraits may be purchased at special school rates.
